"Harbor History"
Museum Focuses on Maritime Tradition
By Kenneth J. Souza

It was 120 years ago that the bark Wanderer, the last whaling vessel built here in Mattapoisett and the last whaler to sail out of New Bedford Harbor, was completed in the town's Holmes Shipyard, not far from the existing site of the town's gazebo and last weekend's popular Harbor Days Festival. And for over a century since, the picturesque harbor and bobbing sailboats within have remained an anchor for the seaside town. Everything from annual events to educational programs to the names of streets have been inspired directly or indirectly by the coastal waters that lap up onto the Mattapoisett shoreline.

In celebration of this omnipresent but often overlooked resource, the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House is sponsoring a two-month summer exhibit focusing on the "History of the Harbor." The detailed and well-researched exhibit includes photographs and information about the many whaling ships built in town, descriptions and locations of the old shipyards, original artworks depicting harbor scenes by local artists, and actual samples of ship-building and whaling tools.

"We usually have two exhibits during the summer, but this one was so good, we decided to offer it for the full two months," said Mattapoisett Museum Curator Bette Roberts. "We've done a lot of research ... and people have been very receptive and willing to loan us material for the exhibit."

Of particular interest to local history buffs are three artifacts which were salvaged from the Wanderer after it was destroyed on the rocks off Cuttyhunk Island in 1924 — they include a crew member's bed, a small chest of drawers, and a three-step staircase. All of these items have been loaned to the museum from private collections.

The exhibit also includes beautiful watercolor and oil paintings by several noted local artists including Andy Anderson, Bea Johnson, George Avila, and Priscilla Hathaway. All of the artwork either depicts specific harbor scenes or are related to the theme of the exhibit.

In an attempt to stay one step ahead of history, the museum exhibit also includes a preliminary gallery of current boats anchored in Mattapoisett Harbor, many of which include anecdotes about the vessel and/or their owners. "We certainly don't have all of the 400-plus boats out there, but it's a start," Ms. Roberts said. Boat owners who have yet to provide such information to the museum are encouraged to do so.

One aspect of the harbor exhibit for which the museum has no photographs or artwork are the many ship yards and boat manufacturers from Mattapoisett. "If anyone has any photographs of the shipyards, we'd like them to bring them in," Ms. Roberts said.

Located at 5 Church Street, the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House is now open for tours on Tuesday through Saturday from 1:00 to 4:30 pm. Admission to the museum is $2 for adults and 50 cents for children under 15. Members of the Historical Society and their guests are admitted FREE. The "History of the Harbor" exhibit is running now through August 29.

Docents are always on duty to answer questions and give you a tour of the museum, if you wish. There are also various items of local interest for sale in the museum's gift corner. The museum is handicapped-accessible by means of a gate and side walkway, entering through the Carriage House.

Also visible in the background is the town's original gazebo. The Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House is currently hosting an exhibit titled "History of the Harbor" through August 29 which showcases the town's ship-building industry, contributions to the whaling industry, and the importance of maritime life over the last century. ### Mattapoisett Brownies Visit Battleship Mattapoisett Brownie Troop 75 decided to spend their Girl Scout cookie profits by going to the Battleship Massachusetts for a sleepover. Leaders Joeline Marinone and Beth Lopes, along with seven parents, took 14 Brownies to Battleship Cove in Fall River to sleep in the sailors' quarters inside the belly of the battleship.

They explored the Battleship Cove, climbing in and out of the submarine Lionfish, the destroyer Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., P.T. boats 617 and 796 (the only two on display in the world), a Russian-built missile corvette Hiddensea, and, of course, the Battleship Massachusetts.

For supper the group entered the chow line along with 350 other people and ate on board. They experienced a fire drill, thunderstorm, lecture on the wartime activities of the Battleship Massachusetts, storytime, a movie ("Chips, the War Dog"), and then lights out and sleep! The troop slept in cots hung at different levels from the walls.

At 6:30 am, the group was awakened by bugle revelry played over the loudspeaker. They cleaned up, and went to a breakfast of French toast, potatoes, orange juice, and cantaloupe.

After packing up their things, the troop went to the Marine Museum and watching an entertaining and informative slide presentation on the Titanic. The museum has a huge replica of the Titanic and models of different boats and ships and all kinds of maritime paraphernalia.

When asked if additional police presence would be required and if some type of liability insurance needed to be in place, Ms. Gardner noted that both had already been secured. "I've spoken with (Police Chief) James Moran, and he's agreed to assisting with the details ... and we'll be able to take out a one-day, $1 million insurance policy for the event," she said.

The auction will feature a variety of collectible sports memorabilia, including autographed baseballs by some of the all-time great players like Babe Ruth. "We've gotten some serious inquiries about the autographed Babe Ruth baseball," Ms. Gardner said.

The board agreed to grant permission for Hearts and Hands to pitch a tent on the property adjacent to the Police Station, and Chairman Lambalot said he had "no problem" with the fund-raiser. The board also wished Ms. Gardner luck with what they deemed to be a "worthwhile cause."

The residents have taken it upon themselves to hire an engineer and pay for these

"The reason we're asking to do this now, is we've already got the contractor in place," Mr. Huntoon said. "We'd like to add another $380,000 to the $1.5 million project, which would actually decrease the total betterment to individual home owners by adding 31 homes."

In order to alter the project, however, the Water / Sewer Commissioners noted it would require the approval of Town Meeting. The commission wanted to know how quickly a Special Town Meeting could be scheduled so that the additional work could be done while the contractor is still on the job. The board, upon consulting with Town Clerk Lois Ennis, noted that it would take at least 14 days to post and schedule a Special Town Meeting. As such, they agreed to select a date in mid- to late-August for this purpose.

The board next signed and approved the treasury warrant for the week, approved the minutes of the July 7

The board also unanimously voted to approve a Special One-Day, All-Alcoholic Beverage License for: the Mattapoisett Clambake to be held on August 9 at the Holy Ghost Grounds; the Fairhaven Clambake to be held on August 30 at the Holy Ghost Grounds; and the Holy Ghost Feast to be held on July 25 and 26 at the Holy Ghost Grounds.

After approving the warrant for the September 15 State Primary Election, the board also signed the interim loan note and documents from the Massachusetts Water Pollution regarding the town's pending sewer loan.

Upon noting that the 90-day deadline to review the so-called Daniell/Yonush dog matter is up on Tuesday, July 28, the board agreed to let the deadline expire without holding a follow-up hearing, since there have been no complaints since the original hearing and Dog Officer Brian Nunes has informed them that the

Ms. Adams noted that anyone interested in volunteering should call the Selectmen's Office at 758-4100 and she will put them in touch with the proper channels.

Ms. Adams informed the board that there is a scheduled meeting on Wednesday, July 22 at 3:00 pm with Town Counsel Tom Crotty, Harbormaster Steve Mach, and Mr. Kenealy to discuss the damage his boat did to the town dock during the storm last November. Town Counsel was hoping that a representative or two from the board could be present to decide upon an immediate solution so that additional legal expenses wouldn't be Lastly, Ms. Adams noted that Rochester will be hosting the next Tri-Town Selectmen's Meeting on Thursday, August 20 at 7:00 pm at the Rochester Town Hall.

At 7:55 pm, the board met with Joseph Slattery, Chairman of the SouthCoast emPOWERment group and Mattapoisett's representative to that organization, to discuss the group's recent completion of a draft compact agreement with all participating towns. Mr. Slattery explained that the law firm of Perry, Hicks and Crotty is now reviewing the compact, which is a mirror of the one recently approved in Barnstable County for the Cape Cod communities.

"Once we get it reviewed by the attorneys, we'll schedule a formal signing by the (Board of Selectmen)," Mr. Slattery said.

Mr. Slattery also noted that the City of New Bedford has declined to participate in the emPOWERment coalition, despite having supported the effort in the past. "We're not sure why they've passed," he said.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received:

- Letter from Donald R. Correia, Co-Chairman of the Mattapoisett Lions Club Harbor Days, apologizing for the loud music which was featured Saturday night of last weekend's festival. "It has come to my attention that the band that was hired was probably inappropriate for the acoustics of the enclosed tent," he wrote. "I noticed, as well as other Lions, that the music was overly loud. I and the members of the Lions Club apologize to the neighbors and the Square Dancers who were using the adjacent parking area as they have done for the past 49 years. It was a case of inadvertently booking the wrong band at the wrong time."

- Memo from Building Inspector Andrew J.

The board also voted to pay a total of $4,358.47 in legal bills from the law firm of Kopelman and Paige for services rendered as Town Counsel.

The Selectmen also signed and approved the warrant for the upcoming Special Election and Recall Election to fill one seat on the board and possibly replace Chairman Cutler.

There being no appointments for the evening, Mr. Dean reviewed incoming correspondence for the week beginning with a notice from the Executive Office of Environmental Affairs regarding Municipal Recycling Grant Information Sessions to be held on July 22 from 10:00 am to 12:00 noon at the Shrewsbury Town Hall.

SEMASS also submitted payment of $196,541.05 in lieu of taxes for the month of June, representing a total of 88,283 tons collected.

The New Bedford Chapter of the American Red Cross submitted a request to locate a secure, locked collection container at the town's transfer station as part of their used clothing collection drive. Since the town is currently in limbo with regards to a temporary transfer station which SEMASS has yet to provide, Chairman Cutler recommended this request be put on hold for the time being.

"SEMASS has offered to build a temporary transfer station," he said. "Do we have any idea when that will be opening?"

Mr. Dean agreed to check with SEMASS on this matter, and the board voted to table the matter until such time that a transfer station is available.

The state Department of Telecommunications and Energy (DTE) next sent a request to fill out a questionnaire regarding customer service standards provided by the local cable provider. This information will be used to develop future legislation governing the cable industry. The board agreed to forward this information to the town's Cable Advisory Committee for response.

The United Nations of Greater Boston sent a request for the board to observe the 53rd anniversary of the United Nations on October 22 by issuing a proclamation and making residents aware of the celebration. The board agreed to place this matter on file and to take action as the anniversary approaches.

Boy Scout Troop 31 of Rochester sent an invitation for the board to attend the Eagle Court of Honor given for Timothy M. McGraw on Saturday, August 22 at 6:30 pm at the Rochester Grange Hall. Although Chairman Cutler said he couldn't attend due to a prior commitment, Selectman Parker said she would be able to represent the board at the proceedings. The board also agreed to prepare a proclamation to be presented to Mr. McGraw at the event.

The Rodman Ride for Kids sent a request for permission to run a portion of their fund-raiser through Rochester. The event — which last year drew about 1,000 riders and raised $670,000 — will be held on Saturday, September 26 this year. The board unanimously granted permission for the function again this year and agreed to forward this information to Police Chief Walter Denham, Fire Chief Scott Ashworth, and Chief Dispatcher Kathy O'Brien.

reminder that the EPA's federally-mandated deadline for removing all single-wall bare steel underground storage tanks in town is December 22, 1998. The board noted that a copy of this had been sent to Fire Chief Scott Ashworth for his reply.

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Mr. Dean noted that the Mary's Pond Beach Committee is next meeting on July 27 to discuss plans for the beach and he will be attending. Zoning Enforcement Officer Bruce Maksy is also researching a possible "anti-noise" by-law for the town and is looking into issuing citations for non-criminal zoning violations.

Mr. Dean also said that he will be working with the Senior Center Committee members to review submitted contract proposals and they will also be

DEDUCTIBLE CLOSING COSTS

There are always expenses connected with the sale of real estate over and above the selling price. These are known as closing costs. Some of these are deductible from your income tax — others are not.

Property taxes are usually pro-rated so that both the buyer and seller each pay the taxes for the portion of the year that each owned the property. Each may deduct this amount — and only this amount — even though one or the other pays the entire amount.

Another deductible item that appears in closing costs, is interest charged to you on the mortgage up to the date of closing. Also deductible as interest is the amount charged as points — provided they are charged as a premium for the loan of the money — not when charged for services.

Non-deductible closing expenses are fire-insurance, FHA mortgage insurance, and charges for rent for occupancy before closing.

interviewing four firms this week which are in the running for the project.

Under Old Business, the board asked if any further information had been obtained regarding so-called "heavy truck exclusion zones." Mr. Dean said he researched an existing by-law in Duxbury, MA which could be established in Rochester to reduce heavy truck traffic.

"I talked with Susan Peterson, our representative to SRPEDD, and they could bring in counters to determine the weight of a vehicle, the speed at which it is traveling, and the frequency," Mr. Dean said. "From there, we can determine which course of action to take."

But the board members stressed that this proposal was just in the research stages. "We're not even sure if this (by-law) is going to be enacted," Chairman Cutler said, adding that the matter was first brought to their attention by a concerned resident. "We've been asked to look into this ... and this is the first time we've been told that it could even be allowed."

The board voted to send this information to the resident who raised the issue and asked Mr. Dean to look further into proposing a similar by-law for Rochester.

Police Chief Walter Denham also submitted his proposed minimum criteria for applying for the rank of sergeant with the department. The board agreed to review this information and make a recommendation at their next meeting.

In setting a tentative date for the Fall Special Town Meeting, the board settled on October 26, which would be before the scheduled state election in November.

Selectman Parker noted that there are open seats remaining on the Rochester Council on Aging (COA) board, and interested residents should submit a letter to the Board of Selectmen, c/o Rochester Town Hall, 1 Constitution Way, Rochester, MA 02770.

Finance Committee (FinCom) Chairman Pat Ryan then asked about the status of the financial obligation owed to the town from the Rochester Environmental Park for detail services rendered. Chairman Cutler noted that they still had not received payment, and the Public Prosecutor was now pursuing the matter.

"I'm concerned that we're losing interest on that money ... even if we receive it now, we won't be able to use it until next year," Ms. Ryan said. "I don't like the idea of using taxpayers' money to support a private contract. The policy needs to be changed."

Chairman Cutler agreed the town's current policy of providing funding upfront for detail work needs to be reviewed.

In other matters, the board agreed to:

- Begin drafting and reviewing a proposed Phased Development By-Law which would limit the number of Building Permits issued on an annual basis;
- Review the draft compact agreement submitted by the SouthCoast emPOWERment group, which is seeking to purchase electric service on a regional basis;

Chairman Cutler noted that Janice Look of Look's Kennel is seeking a contract with the town for this service. But Mr. Dean wanted to know if there were any other kennels in town which might be interested, and if this service should be put out to bid under the state's Procurement Act.

At 8:30 pm the board unanimously voted to go into Executive Session to discuss strategy relative to potential litigation against the town. They would thereafter adjourn for the evening.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

CANINE DIARRHEA

My dog has diarrhea more than once a week for the past month. He eats dog chow and table scraps. Occasionally there is blood in the stool and he can't always control himself and messes indoors. What can I do?

The key to controlling illness is getting a correct diagnosis and then treating the problem appropriately. First, have your veterinarian examine a stool specimen to check for intestinal parasites. Stop feeding your dog table scraps. If no parasites are found and stopping the table scraps does not resolve the problem, try changing the diet. Eucanuba brand foods are often helpful in resolving intestinal upset in dogs.

What if the problem continues?

If you have done the 3 steps described above and the dog still has diarrhea, it is time to have your veterinarian evaluate the dog and possibly perform additional tests in order to obtain a diagnosis. This is especially important if your dog lacks his normal energy level, is losing weight or has an uncharacteristically poor appetite.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

[Editor's Note: The following is an open letter to area residents.]

I am asking for a donation to the Pan Mass Challenge which is a fund-raiser for the Jimmy Fund at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. It is a 192-mile bicycle challenge over a two-day period starting in Sturbridge, MA and finishing in Provincetown, MA. I have been personally active with the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute for many years as a platelets donor, a blood donor, and as a registrant for the National Bone Marrow Donor Program. All of these things I have been able to do myself.

I am going to be bicycling in the Pan Mass Challenge this year on August 1 and August 2 in order to raise money for cancer research. This is where I'm going to need your help.

I have been privileged to see the work that the Jimmy Fund has done and to see first-hand the help and hope they have given to people. This year, Doctor Judah Folkman of the Dana-Farber Research Center has found a cure for cancer in mice. This is great news for all of us.

Maybe you have a son, daughter, mother, father, brother, sister, grandparent, or a very close friend who have been stricken with cancer. The Dana-Farber Cancer Institute is in the forefront of cancer research, but it costs money to do this work and that is where your help is needed. The agony of losing a loved one is such a terrible loss. The pain, suffering, sorrow, and dying cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

If you can find it in your heart and within your means to help the Dana-Farber Research, maybe we will find a cure that will eliminate the pain, suffering and sorrow of losing a loved one to such a terrible disease. I also feel that it will be Dana-Farber Research that will find a cure for the AIDS virus, but this will not happen without your help.

I ask that you look at your family and loved ones and decide whether this is a worthwhile project. Please send what you can afford. Make the check payable to the PMC Jimmy Fund in whatever amount you can.

I intend to make the complete 192-mile challenge. It will not be easy, but not as hard as losing a loved one. If you would like to have your loved one remembered in God's "Hall of Fame," send their name and I will make sure that the name is on the t-shirt I'll be wearing.

Please reply or send donations to: PMC Jimmy Fund, c/o David A. Bancroft, P.O. Box 959, Mattapoisett, MA 02739-1511.

Thank you in advance,

Mattapoisett Lighthouse Tours

The Ned's Point Lighthouse has been pointing the way into Mattapoisett Harbor for over 160 years. Built of rubble stone, with hand-hewn granite interior steps, its lamps were first lit on March 21, 1838.

The Town of Mattapoisett purchased the land around the lighthouse to create "Veterans of Mattapoisett Memorial Park" in 1952, but the Coast Guard still owns the lighthouse and .17 acre of land. Members of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 67, First District Northern Region adopted the lighthouse in 1993 and members of the "Lighthouse Team," under the direction of Lighthouse Keeper Clayton Hagy, soon began opening it to the public for tours.

This year the lighthouse will be open every Thursday in July and August from 10:00 am to 12:00 noon. There is no charge for the tours, and each child must be accompanied by an adult.

The group also has a great variety of normal, happy, healthy kittens also awaiting adoption. To mention a few: an all-black male, manx-type kitten (no tail) with white paws; a very unique light calico resembling an abbyssinian or bengel-like female; two long-haired tigers with markings (one male, one female). Please call Elaine at 996-3959 for kitten information.

In the adult category this week, the group has many listings including: a young, short-haired gray and white female, a very sweet cat; three calicos — a two-year-old sweet and petite needing an indoor, one-cat placement (she is people-oriented but prefers a home where she can be the queen), a large, beautiful declawed cat who was recently given up due to a divorce, and an older, extremely friendly cat abandoned on an island and would prefer an indoor/outdoor home; a very different-looking female, all-white with black nose and tail ("Scarecrow"); "Simba," the Maine coon-type male still looking for adult placement; a five-year-old purebred neutered male who's a gem; and an all-white angora female, spayed and declawed who is currently living outdoors and desperately wants to come indoors.

To adopt any of the aforementioned animals, or for further information about the local chapter of Animal Umbrella, please call one of the following area representatives:

- Mary Lou at 994-6168;
- Trudy at 990-7806;

Bath, Maine, he was proud to have been the fourth generation involved in the sailmaking business. George was the third son of Caroline Winslow (Morse) Silsby and Ralph Wilson Silsby. George briefly worked for his father who owned Silsby Sails on Union Wharf in Fairhaven.

He was a graduate of Fairhaven High School and attended the New Bedford Textile School. He was a member of The Order of DeMolay. He had attended the Unitarian Church of Fairhaven as a child, and in his adult years served on many church committees. George was also a former president and treasurer of the Fairhaven Salt Water Fishing Club.

He started his professional career as a chemist technician at General Electric Company in Lynn, MA. After ill health brought an end to work at Silsby Sails, he took a position at the Acushnet Company as a quality control chemist in the Rubber Division. He took retirement after 25 years with the Acushnet Company.

Most recently, he was a member of AARP, past president of the Mattapoisett Seniors, member of WGBH-TV, and member of World Wildlife Federation and the Smithsonian Institute.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by his children, David A. Silsby of St. Petersburg, FL, Robert M. Silsby of Tolland, MA, Anne L. McLaughlin of Rochester, Karen J. Steeves of Mattapoisett, seven grandchildren, four grand dogs, and three grand cats.

In recent years he had wintered in St. Petersburg, FL and vacationed summers in Maine.

Arrangements are by Sperry and McHoul Funeral Home of North Attleboro, MA. Donations may be made to Hospice of Greater Taunton or the Community Nurse Association of Fairhaven. A memorial service will be held in Mattapoisett at Shipyard Park at 3:00 pm on Sunday, July 26. Please bring chairs or blankets for sitting. In case of rain, a new date will be announced.

Did You Receive Your Blue Book?

The Blue Book, or the Mattapoisett/Mattapoisett/
Rochester Telephone Directory published by the Tri-Town League of Women Voters, should have reached all tri-town postal patrons in June. If you did not receive one or are an incoming summer resident, you may pick up a FREE copy at The Bookstall on Front Street in Marion.
This League community service and many others are made possible by the Blue Book advertisers.

Any errors which need correcting, and changes of address or phone number should be reported to the League publishers, John and Claire Russell at 748-2542 for correction in next year's book.

Concerts in Fairhaven Center

The Fairhaven Improvement Association is once again sponsoring a series of "Music in the Center" concerts. These five concerts are all held on the steps of Fairhaven's magnificent Town Hall on Center Street.
Bring a lawn chair or blanket and listen to music as the sun sets. There is plenty of room for dancing and chalk art fun for the kids. In case of rain, concerts will be held in the Town Hall Auditorium.

Following is a schedule of upcoming concerts, all of which are slated to begin at 7:00 pm:

- July 23 - Silverman's Cabaret. An unforgettable tribute to Broadway!
- July 30 - Couto & Mulligan. Songs, stories and fun from this popular veteran duo; and Art Tebbetts, performing pop songs of the 30's and 40's to the best of contemporary songwriters.

• August 6 - Memory Lane II. A big hit last year with music from the 50's, 60's and 70's.

• August 13 - Meadowlarks. Music in the Center would not be complete without this Music 15-piece band presenting the songs of the Big Band era and more.

For more information on the concerts, please contact: Nina Catelli Vincent at 997-0694, or e-mail ninacatv@ultranet.com. This project is supported in part by a grant from the Fairhaven Arts Council, a local agency

There are many incorrect ways to prune a tree. We use our years of training and experience to help your trees reach their full value to your property.

The fee for a license will remain the same as last year: $6 for spayed female or neutered male dogs, and $9 for unaltered female or male dogs. All dogs must have a valid rabies certificate.

The Animal Control Officer would like to remind all dog owners that the town's Leash Law is in effect and will be enforced. Loose dogs will be picked up and taken to the animal shelter in Fairhaven. A $25 fine plus the cost of boarding will be charged for this violation.

Legislature Adopts Tax Cut

Representative William Straus (D-Mattapoisett) recently announced that the legislature has adopted an historic income tax cut and sent it to Acting Governor

Celluci for his approval. Included within the $700 million tax cut measure is an improvement in the Title V tax credit for homeowners who either upgrade a septic system or tie into public sewer systems. The Title V tax cut and its improvement were co-sponsored by Representative Straus during budget debate earlier this year on the FY 99 state budget.

Under prior provisions of the law, also co-sponsored by Representative Straus in 1997, the legislature established a $6,000 income tax credit to be used in increments of up to $1,500 a year based upon expenses of up to $15,000 repairing a septic system or for the costs of tying into public systems including betterment charges. The tax credit was made retroactive to 1996. For example, the credit will be applicable for homeowner expenses associated with such local projects as the West Island sewer project in Fairhaven, and the sewer extension project in the Ned's Point area of Mattapoisett.

The new Title V provision awaiting the Governor's approval extends the period during which homeowners can use the credit from four to six years. By extending this period, the tax credit will become more advantageous to middle-income taxpayers who may not have state tax bills as high as $1,500 in a year.

"I am delighted that the conference committee included our language on Title V within the overall tax cut bill," said Representative Straus. "This bill includes a broad array of tax cuts and improvement affecting individuals and businesses. By cutting in half the tax rate on dividends and interest, we will eliminate any disparity which penalizes savings income which is so important to many including seniors."

The tax cut bill crafted by the legislature is expected to receive the Governor's approval. The measure also doubles the exemption of earned income, saving about $131 for a single filer and $262 for joint filers. Of good news to businesses, the plan also will reduce unemployment insurance rates by $116 million.

"This bill offers a reasoned approach to cutting taxes in a year when we have also been able to continue increases in Local Aid and school assistance to the communities," Representative Straus said.

Marion Art Center

Watercolor Exhibit

An exhibition of paintings by Betty Archer and Mike Mazer is now on display at the Marion Art Center.

Betty Archer is noted for her wonderful, whimsical artwork. An award-winning watercolorist, Ms. Archer has in recent years found her love in a new dual-media approach where she starts with pen and ink, setting a composition, and follows with bright watercolor washes. It has earned her a following of admirers who collect her work. Through her eyes the viewer travels to her summer hideaway in Rockport of other typical New England scenes such as yard sales, festivals, and boats bouncing in the harbor.

Mike Mazer started sketching as a child at home and then in school. He would draw cartoons and anything else his friends wanted. The desire and ability to sketch and draw were put aside in later years when he pursued a career in medicine. He has been a practicing cardiologist, nephrologist, and internist for the past 36 years.

The galleries of the Marion Art Center are open Tuesday through Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm, and Saturday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Admission is FREE. The Archer/Mazer show will run through August 5.

Clothing Drive in Fairhaven

Saint Joseph's Church in Fairhaven will be holding a used clothing drive through Community Recycling Services. Statistics show that ten billion pounds of clothing are being dumped in American landfills each year. This is a shame, because there are people in need of clothing and our landfills are filling up quickly, with no other places to dump.

With Community Resources Services, everyone wins. Saint Joseph's Church will raise money, the clothing that is donated will be recycled and everyone who donates clothing is making a charitable donation, which is tax-deductible.

Here's how it works: place your used clothing in bags (shoes are also accepted); bring the bags to Saint Joseph's Church where a trailer will be in the parking lot near the side entrance; and drop off will begin July 24, 1998 through August 2, 1998 before and after all masses. If you are unable to drop off your clothing, or if you have any questions, you may call Kathleen Isaksen at 992-5183 (clothing pick up arrangements can be made).

Mattapoisett Public Library

Volunteer Award

Nominations for the first recipient of the Philip Zeimetz Volunteer Award are being sought by the Trustees of the Mattapoisett Public Library. Bette Roberts, Chairman of the Trustees, said the award has been established to recognize outstanding volunteer service by an individual or group that directly benefits the town. The name of this individual or group will be engraved on a plaque to be hung in the library.

Mr. Zeimetz had contributed countless hours to maintenance of the library and to other organizations in Mattapoisett, Ms. Roberts said. Nominations may be made by individuals or groups. They should be made by August 15 in writing, stating justification for the award, and be sent to: Philip Zeimetz Volunteer Award, P.O. Box 475, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

The selection committee will include a representative of the library trustees, a representative of the town selected by the Selectmen, a member of the Zeimetz family, and a representative of each church in Mattapoisett.

Building Committee

Elizabeth Theriault of 8 Holly Street has been appointed to the Building Committee for the proposed $1 million addition to the Mattapoisett Public Library. Ms. Theriault, a library trustee for two years, has been head of the catalogue department at the Wellesley Public Library. Other Building Committee members are John N. DeCosta, Francis H. Gordon, David J. McIntyre Jr., Elizabeth H. Kunz, and Robert H. Atkinson.

Voters approved a $40,000 Proposition 2 1/2 override at the last election for architectural plans. The state will pay 45 percent of the total cost and the balance will be raised in a private fund-raising drive.

New Hours

The Mattapoisett Public Library is now open on Saturday until 3:00 pm.

In the Fall, more evening hours will be added during the week, according to the newly-elected Chairman of the Library Trustees, Bette Roberts. The extra hours are in response to the results of a survey of library patrons earlier this year.

Ms. Roberts said the new hours are possible because two staff positions unfilled for about 10 months have been filled. Barbara Perrault has begun as a Technical Services staffer and Melissa Correia as Library Technician.

Other trustees elected to new positions this week were: Joan Andersen (clerk); Bob Walter (treasurer); Bob Atkinson (building and grounds); and Betty Theriault and Bob Walter (computer committee).

Discount Passes

The Mattapoisett Public Library is offering discounted passes to state attractions. Passes are available for: John F. Kennedy Library, Columbia Point, Boston (free pass for four); Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (free for two adults per pass - library has two passes available); Museum of Science, Boston (coupon for four, $1 per person for specific dates - does not include Omni or Planetarium tickets); Plimoth Plantation, Plymouth (free admission for two adults and two children, daily now through November); Roger Williams Park Zoo, Providence (discounted pass for four, $2.50 per adult, $1.25 for children and seniors - does not include Jurassic Journey).

Passes can be reserved at the library or by calling 758-4171, according to Sue Tweedy, Library Director. The pass program is financed by specified gifts, unspecified gifts and donations to the library.

Sword Play

BY ROB GONSALVES

■ The Mask of Zorro. Starring Antonio Banderas and Anthony Hopkins. Directed by Martin Campbell. Running time: 136 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13. At Cinema 140 in New Bedford.

The Mask of Zorro is the antithesis of the summer blockbuster as we've come to know it lately: no CGI (well, none that I noticed), relatively few explosions (two), action scenes you can easily follow (this is becoming a lost art). In short, it's everything I want from a hot-weather adventure movie. Well ... almost everything. Zorro is crisp and competent and often witty, but it only does what it's supposed to do; it's never quite inspired or exhilarating, despite the deft stuntwork and acting.

The movie begins in the early 1800s, when the nobleman Don Diego de la Vega (Anthony Hopkins) is drawn to a public execution. This nobleman, of course, is Zorro, protector of the weak and poor; he short-circuits the execution and barely escapes with the help of two urchins (he's getting too old for this). Zorro's nemesis, the evil Don Rafael Montero (Stuart Wilson), tracks him down to his hacienda, killing his young wife and stealing his baby daughter before tossing him in jail.

Cut to twenty years later. The urchins are now grown men; one of them is Alejandro Murrieta (Antonio Banderas), who watches his brother die at the hands of a vicious Army captain (Matt Latscher). In a tavern, Alejandro meets Diego, who has recently escaped from prison. The old Zorro sees that the time has come for a new Zorro. He trains the undisciplined Alejandro in swordplay and manners.

Zorro seems intended as the start of a new franchise, and I'm all for it in theory: a series of adventure movies (as opposed to action movies) whose thrills depend more on ingenuity and stuntwork than on special effects. Such a franchise might fill the void left when Steven Spielberg retired Indiana Jones. But Zorro's director, Martin Campbell, is no Spielberg. In GoldenEye, the first Pierce Brosnan James Bond film, Campbell showed a solid grasp of adventure-movie mechanics. What he lacks is the visual wit and devilry that surprises a laugh out of you and kicks the action up a notch — turns a good sequence into a great one.

A fencing bout between Banderas and the Welsh actress Catherine Zeta-Jones, as Diego's long-lost daughter Elena (whom Don Rafael claimed as his own child), shows what a good Zorro movie should be. As the mutually-attracted Zorro and Elena cross swords, each impressed by the other's moves, the scene develops a playful erotic rhythm. (It's too bad Campbell cheapens it by having Zorro cut away Elena's clothes — Zorro should be more chivalrous than that. It would've been a better gag the other way around.) And there's a nicely understated scene between Elena and Diego, who's posing as Alejandro's servant. Hopkins, a master of repressed emotion, can stand there and do nothing and still make you feel how much he loves this daughter who has no idea who he is.

Aside from those scenes, Elena is essentially secondary to the action, and we don't really get a sense of the relationship between the two Zorros. The movie is a bit rushed — weeks of training are telescoped into a montage — and the structure is lumpy. There's too much set-up at the beginning, and I began to feel that the whole double-Zorro idea was unnecessary, a stunt to get Anthony Hopkins in the movie. He's fine here, and Banderas has some good light moments, but he's covered in facial hair too much of the time — he could be anyone.

And the double-revenge plot is boredom squared. I kept flashing back to The Princess Bride: "Hello. My name is Inigo Montoya. You killed my father. Prepare to die" — and it was done better then. Rob Reiner and William Goldman struck the perfect balance between picaresque goofing around — the parodic derring-do of Errol Flynn and Douglas Fairbanks — and emotional payoffs. This Zorro seems too locked into its revenge plot, like Lethal Weapon with swords; it needs more scenes that are there just for the sheer playful hell of it. Instead it has needlessly violent fight scenes (Zorro slicing a Z into his enemies loses its charm when you can see the blood) and even severed body parts in jars.

Zorro needed the light touch of Robert Rodriguez (Desperado), who was going to direct it until budget disputes with exec-producer Steven Spielberg forced him out. Knowing Rodriguez, he probably wanted to make the movie cheaper and shorter and funnier. Instead, it's expensive and long and not nearly as funny as it should have been.

Dog Licenses

1998 Dog Licenses are now available in the Town Clerk's office during regular working hours. In accordance with the Town of Acushnet By-Laws and Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 140, Section 137, all dogs over the age of three months must be licensed by the Town Clerk.

The license fee structure will remain the same as last year: Spayed female dogs and neutered male dogs - $6 per year; Unaltered female and male dogs - $9 per year.

Dog owners who fail to license any dog will be subject to a fine of $25. This year a strict enforcement policy will be implemented. Remember, state law requires that you present a valid rabies vaccination certificate for dogs three months and older to the Town Clerk prior to licensing.

VASE Plant Sale in Marion

Volunteers At Sippican Elementary (VASE) is sponsoring a Perennial Plant Sale to benefit the Art and Music Fund at Sippican School in Marion. This year's funds are being raised toward the purchase of a new drum set, a trip to a recording studio in Boston for 10 students involved in composing their own musical pieces, and toward the purchase of a kiln for the Art Department. In the past, funds have been allocated for art supplies and a tuba. In this day and age of education, music and art suffer greatly with the high cost of musical instruments and art appreciation.

The plants that are being offered have two price categories: six and a half inch pots for $4.25 and one-gallon pots for $5.75. The plants range from delphinium, cranesbill, moonkshood, phlox, daylillies, bleeding heart, and lupines among others. If you should choose to purchase a plant you will receive a voucher which may be used at Eden Landscape toward the plant of your choice. Order forms may be obtained at Sippican School, the Marion Town House, the Elizabeth Taber Library, and other locations in Marion. If you should have any questions, please contact Susan Anderson at 748-2792 or Joanne Gibbs at 748-3822.

Sippican School Council Openings

The Sippican School Council has three openings for the next school year. The council provides a good opportunity for parents to have a part in setting the educational goals of the school. This is a two-year commitment taking approximately two-and-one-half hours per month and a half day in the summer. If interested, please submit a letter to the school including a brief statement of your qualifications and why you are interested in. State law requires that these positions be elected. For further information, please contact Mary Lou Hobson at 748-0100.

understanding and appreciation of cultural differences are vital to peace. AFS Intercultural Programs has been working for over 50 years toward world peace and understanding by conducting high school exchanges, and the Old Rochester Regional High School chapter has been in operation since the early 1960's.

AFS students into their lives. They are hosting students from Italy and Portugal, teaching them about the United States, and allowing our community to learn from these youthful representatives of other cultures.

When AFS was started 50 years ago, students from war-torn Europe came to America to experience another way of life and to understand and appreciate our world's cultural differences. This mission of cultural understanding and tolerance is as relevant today as it was after World War II, and hosting families help to build bridges of understanding. Along the way, we all learn a great deal about ourselves, as Americans and as citizens of a diverse world. Opportunities are now available for families to host AFS students for the coming school year. For information, please call the ORR Chapter Co-Presidents, Marlene Souza at 748-2796 or Mary Ann Amoruso at 758-3726.

Veterans' Tax Exemptions

Official notice has been received from the Massachusetts Department of Veterans Services and the Massachusetts Department of Revenue in reference to a real estate tax exemption increase for qualifying veterans. Chapter 88 amends the various clauses in Chapter 59, Section 5 that provides for property tax exemptions for disabled and decorated veterans (and their spouses and surviving spouses). Specifically, the exemptions in Clause 22 (A-F) and Clauses 22A, 22B, 22C, 22D, and 22E were increased by $75.

Among those who are eligible for the abatements are veterans who have a disability rated 10 percent or more, purple heart medal recipients, spouses of veterans who at the time of their death were entitled to exemption or lost their lives while serving during a time of war, and the fathers and mothers of such veterans.

For further information, please contact the District Director of Veterans Services, Harvey Blanchette, at 758-4114 in the Mattapoisett Town Hall Veterans' Office between the hours of 8:00 am and 1:00 pm, Tuesday through Thursday.

if they do not enroll by October 1, 1998. The Department of Veterans Affairs is mandated by the Veterans Health Care Eligibility Reform Act of 1996 to establish an enrollment system for health care services to be in place by October 1, 1998. While veterans must enroll to receive care, it does not mean that veterans who have not applied for enrollment by that time will lose their eligibility for VA health care.

Veterans who are automatically enrolled and who do not need to register are veterans who have service-connected disability of 50 percent or more, veterans who have been discharged from the military service for less than a year for compensable disability that the military determined was incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, veterans seeking care for service-connected disability, and veterans who have received VA health care after October 1, 1996. All other veterans are encouraged to enroll by October 1, 1998 so that the VA can provide a current national database.

To enroll, veterans may contact Mr. James Burrows at the VA Hospital in Providence at (401) 457-3300 or call for an appointment at the New Bedford Medical Center, 175 Elm Street, New Bedford at 994-0217. For further information, you may also contact Harvey Blanchette or Paula Butterfield in the Veterans Office at 758-4114, Tuesday through Thursday from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Fairhaven SHINE Counselor

The Fairhaven Council on Aging SHINE Counselor is Ms. Irene Huggins. The COA's SHINE volunteer will be available on Thursday from 12:30 to 3:30, or by appointment. Please call 979-4029 for further information, or to make an appointment.

Also, Jean Silver, SHINE Counselor, will be visiting the Fairhaven Housing sites on Wednesday mornings. Please check your bulletin board for date, time and location.
